

Program

Workshop on recent developments in non-market valuation applied to health

Wednesday, April 8, 2026

Venue: AMSE/AMU, 5 Boulevard Maurice Bourdet, 13001 Marseille - Room 15 (ground floor)

Presentation: Each presentation slot includes a 10-minute discussion

Organizer: Olivier Chanel (olivier.chanel@univ-amu.fr)

- 09.00-09.05 Welcome speech
- 09.05-09.45 Ståle Navrud, Norwegian University of Life Sciences
Recent OECD meta-analysis on the value of a statistical life and its policy applications, joint with Henrik Lindhjem (Menon Economics), Yohei Mitani (Division of Natural Resource Economics, Kyoto University) and Olof Bystrom (OECD Environment Directorate)
- 09.45-10.15 Olivier Chanel, CNRS, AMSE
Recent developments in the economic assessment of long-term environment-related morbidity and mortality, joint with Aurelio Tobias (Spanish Council for Scientific Research) and Lina Madaniyazi (Nagasaki University)
- 10.15-10.45 Antoine Lacombe, Aix-Marseille Université, AMSE
Diagnostic test value - How treatability and transmissibility interact with individual traits
- 10.45-11.00 Coffee break
- 11.00-11.30 Simon Combes, University College London
Beyond marginal analysis: A finance-inspired framework for long-term environment evaluation using terminal value, joint with Olivier Chanel (CNRS, AMSE)
- 11.30-12.00 Stéphane Luchini, CNRS, AMSE
Equity in Health and Equivalent Incomes, joint with Marc Fleurbaey (Paris School of Economics) and Erik Schokkaert (KU Leuven)
- 12.00-12.30 Discussions on potential research collaborations between members of AMSE and the University of Norway
- 12.30 Lunch